COMPANY'S BUILDING.

NEW ENGLAND
MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.,
BOSTON AND NEW YORK,
110 Broadway, Corner Pine Street, New York.

WILLARD PHILLIPS, President. B. F. STEVENS, Secretary.

CASH ACCUMULATION, $2,500,000.
CLEAR SURPLUS, $1,250,000.

This is the oldest wholly Mutual Life Insurance Company in the United States, having been organized in the year 1843, and has been uniformly successful, having always made large returns in cash dividends to all the policy holders. Last cash dividend 39 per cent.

It is strictly a benevolent institution for mutual protection, and entirely beneficent in all its workings and tendencies.

By the last report of the Insurance Commissioners, the surplus of assets over liabilities was $1,250,000, being proportionately greater than any Life Insurance Company in the United States. Expenses proportionately "less" than any other Company.

This Company, being purely mutual, insures at the lowest possible rates; and if the premiums paid, exceed the actual cost, the surplus is returned to the parties insuring.

Every fifth year, at the time of declaring the dividends, the business is, as it were closed, so that its actual position and solvency are made manifest at that time; and the surplus funds are divided pro rata among all the insured. This guards the insured against any possible loss from inefficiency on the part of the Company, and is a sure guaranty as regards the future.

Insurance may be effected for the benefit of married women, beyond the reach of their husband's creditors. Creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

Printed documents of an interesting character, showing the benefits of the mutual plan, and the advantages generally of life insurance, supplied gratis, or forwarded free of expense, by addressing,

JOHN HOPPER, Agent for the Co.,
110 Broadway, cor. Pine St., N. Y. City.

Distant parties may insure from blanks, which will be supplied and forwarded free of expense.

NEWPORT.

If Newport were not, as it is, the most elegant and fashionable of all American watering-places, its topographical beauties — its ancient commercial importance, and its many interesting historical associations, would yet claim for it distinguished mention.

Coming in from the sea round Point Judith, a few miles bring the traveler into the waters of Narragansett Bay, where he passes between Fort Wolcott, on Goat Island, and the stronghold of Fort Adams upon Brenton Point, on the right, and enters the harbor of the ancient town, once among the commercial emporiums of the Union. As late as 1769, Newport outrivaled New York in her foreign and domestic commerce. At this time the town was in the zenith of her commercial prosperity; she had engaged in the foreign trade about two hundred vessels and nearly four hundred coasting vessels, including a regular line of London packets, and employing no less than twenty-two hundred seamen. New York, New Haven, New London, and other places, depended entirely on Newport as a market to supply themselves with foreign goods. Such was the amount of business done, that goods were not stored, owing to the want of room, while the wharves were literally covered with sugar, rum, molasses, and every kind of foreign and domestic goods. The coasters would take on board the merchandise and proceed direct to New York, Connecticut, &c., finding a ready demand. The West India trade was immense.

A druggist in Newport supplied Rhode Island, a part of Massachusetts, all Connecticut and North Carolina, and had an establishment in New York.

In the Revolution, the British long held possession of Newport, during which time and at their departure, it became almost desolate. Before leaving, they destroyed four hundred and eighty buildings — burned the light-house, cut down all the trees, broke up the wharves, used the churches for riding schools and the state house for a hospital, and carried off the church bells and the town records to New York — disasters which reduced the population from 12,000 to less than half.

But the incidents of this period have left some pleasant memories for the present day; remembrances of the fame of Commodore Perry, who was born in Narragansett — across the bay — and whose remains now rest in Newport; of the residence of Rochambeau, and other brave officers of the French fleet; and of the visits of General Washington, and the fetes given in his honor.

Of late years the place has grown to be a great summer residence —a new city of charming villas and sumptuous mansions has sprung up, extending far along upon the terraces which overlook the sea. Population near 15,000. The chief picturesque attractions of the place are the fine ocean shores, known as the First, Second and Third Beach. The first Beach is chiefly used as a bathing ground by visitors. At the Second Beach are the famous rocks called Purgatory and the Hanging Rocks, within whose shadows, it is said, the celebrated Bishop Berkeley wrote his "Minute Philosopher." Nearer to the city, and upon the coast, is the great spouting cave. The Glen and other localities, are charming places to ride to. Among the venerable buildings still to be seen are the ancient State House (Newport being a semi-capital of Rhode Island), the Redwood Library, erected in 1748 (among its collections are 84 large volumes presented by the King of England), Tammany Hall Institute, Trinity Church, the Vernon Family Mansion, Commodore Perry's House, the City Hall, the fortifications in the Harbor, and the "Old Stone Mill," a relic of a period past remembrance, and which has caused much speculation. It is claimed, by the author of a work published in Denmark, to have been erected by Northmen, who, it is supposed, discovered this continent, anterior to Columbus, in the twelfth century. These Northmen were descendants of the Scandinavians, who, it is thought, sprang from the Thracians, mentioned by Homer, a nation now extinct. The Danes, Swedes, Norwegians and Icelanders, all come under the name of Northmen or Norsemen; on the other hand 'tis said the mill was erected about 200 years ago, and belonged to Gov. Benedict Arnold. In his will he calls it "my stone-built wind-mill," and in his son-in law's will (Edward Pelham), dated May, 1741, mention is also made of it, as though it had been built in Gov. Arnold's time. The dimensions of this curious structure is nearly 25 feet in height, its diameter on the outside is 23 feet, and inside 18 feet 9 inches. It is circular and supported upon eight arches, resting on thick columns about ten feet high. The height of the centre of the arches from the ground is 12 feet 6 inches, and the foundation extends to the depth of 5 feet. It is built of small pieces of stone firmly put together with a very hard cement or mortar. Newport was the birthplace of the gifted miniature painter, Malbone; and Gilbert Stuart's place of nativity may be seen in Narragansett, across the bay. Stuart made two copies of his Great Washington Picture for Rhode Island — one can be seen in the State House at Newport, the other in that at Providence.

Franklin's Printing Press, which his brother James imported in 1720, is in the office of the Newport Mercury, a paper established in 1758, by James Franklin, and which is still published by Messrs. Pratt & Messer. The press is kept and honored as the one on which the great Benjamin worked when learning his trade.

The old chair of State, in which Gov. Benedict Arnold sat at the reception of the charter in 1663, when it was proclaimed in the presence of all the freemen of the colony, at Newport, is in the possession of the Gould family.

Take it all in all, Newport is one of the most interesting and "enjoyably beautiful" places that the tourist can visit—fine hotels—beautiful drives—excellent bathing; and anything in the shopping line can be got; for directions to which see our advertising department of the Directory.

WARD BOUNDARIES.

At a Town Council of the town of Newport, holden Newport, May 23, 1853.

Whereas, By the 12th section of the City Charter, passed by the General Assembly of this State, at their May session, 1853, entitled "An Act for Incorporating the City of Newport," it makes it the duty of the Town Council of the Town of Newport, as soon as may be after the passage of said act, and the acceptance of it by the legally qualified voters therein, to divide said town into five wards, as in said section mentioned. And, whereas the said charter has been adopted as so provided, within the time named in said act, and in conformity thereto: therefore, be it ordained that,

THE FIRST WARD shall be bounded by a line drawn from Gravelly Point along the south side of the Long wharf, until it comes to the first house on the south side of said wharf; thence up the center of the wharf to the center of Thames street, thence north through the center of Thames to Farewell street; thence through the center of Farewell street to Long lane, so called; thence through the center of said lane in a straight line to the shore; thence continuing around the northern and western extremities of the town back to Gravelly Point, the place of beginning, including docks and wharves.

THE SECOND WARD shall be bounded by a line from the shore along the line of the First Ward, running through the center of Long lane and Farewell street, and Thames street to the foot of the Parade; thence to the State House; thence around the south end of the State House to Broad street; through the center of Broad street to Bull street; up through the center of Bull street to Brindley street; through the center of Brindley street to Catharine street; through the center of Catharine street eastward in a straight line to the pond north of Easton's beach.

EDUCATION.

The educational advantages of the city are steadily increasing. The public schools are in excellent condition.

There are several private schools, also, and among them may be mentioned:

THE BERKLEY INSTITUTE.—This is a classical and commercial school of the highest grade. It has been eight years in successful operation, during which time it has sent forth many young men whose subsequent course has been highly creditable to themselves and to the institution in which they received their academic training. The school has several departments and a corps of competent instructors. The Rev. William C. Leverett is Principal.

THE "CHOULES INSTITUTE" is a well-known school for boys. This school was established, some years since, by the Rev. Dr. Choules, widely and favorably known for his success in the education of youth. It has, for some time, been, and is now, under the direction of Mrs. Choules and Mr. H. H. Fay.

There is a popular school, for young ladies, upon Church st., under the guidance of Miss Hunter, and upon Mann Avenue the Misses Spooner have a girls' boarding and day school.

CHURCHES.

1. THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH, which, as Hubbard wrote in 1648, and which, as described in 1730, by the Rev. John Comer, the fifth pastor, and by Rev. Mr.

Callender, the sixth, in 1738, was established as early as 1644, though an earlier date has been claimed since their day by B. B. Howland, Esq., viz. 1641. Rev. S. Adlam, the thirteenth and its present highly esteemed pastor, has said, "This is the oldest Church on Rhode Island, having been founded in 1638, the year when the first settlement was made upon it." The minister is Samuel Adlam, and the sexton, Henry Seixas. The bell in the tower weighs 1050 lbs.

2. The first SOCIETY OF FRIENDS was established in Newport about 1643. As the house, in which the records of their meetings were deposited, was burnt in 1676, the first regular account which is preserved, bears date in this year; but the record books for marriages, births and deaths are in being, and the first marriage in Newport occurred, Wednesday, 4th day, 15th of 9th month, 1643; the first birth on Friday, 6th day, 19th of 2d month, 1644; and the first death on Thursday, 5th day, 30th of 7th month, 1647. These dates are after the old style.

It is reported that their first house was built on Farewell street, about 1680; but there is a record of a marriage performed at their public meeting house, 3m., 16th, 1677. The foundation of a new house was laid Oct. 17th, 1699. This house, built in 1700, is situated on Tanner and Marlborough streets, and was enlarged on the north, August 22d, 1729, and on the south in 1807; and now measures 46 by 126 feet. It has been reconstructed. Seats in both apartments, 1505.

The first child of the English settlers was born at Portsmouth, then Pocasset, 3d. m. (May), 1638. He was the son of Richard and Joan Borden, and was named Matthew.

3. The next in order is the SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH, situated on North Baptist and Farewell streets, founded in 1656. Their first house was erected in 1697; their second in 1706–7, and was enlarged successively in 1725, 1749 and 1768, at which time it measured 52 by 76 feet; and their third in 1834–5, and is in dimensions 52 by 86 feet, and seats on the floor 677, and in the galleries 220, in all, 897. The minister is Charles

H. Malcom, and the sexton, Philip Sherman, the patriarch of his office. The bell in the tower is on the letter G, and weighs 1617 pounds.

4. The fourth in order is the SABBATARIAN BAPTIST CHURCH, founded in 1671. Their first house was at "Green End," 1707; and their second on Barney street, 1730—26 by 38 feet, and seats on the floor, 148, and in the galleries, 86; in all 234.

5. THE UNITED CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH was formed May 24th, 1833, by the union of the First and Second. The Rev. N. Clap began his labors January, 1695. The house of the first was built on Tanner street, near the manufacturing establishment of John T. Bush, in 1696; and another was raised July 21, 1728, on Mill street, 42 by 60 feet. The second church, built on Clarke street, in 1733, 42 by 60 feet. In 1834, June 4th, the Union House was dedicated, situated on Spring and Pelham streets, measuring 42 by 70 feet. Their present house was dedicated January 15, 1857, built on the site of the preceding. Its dimensions are 66 by 96 feet; a stone building. The minister is Thatcher Thayer, and the sexton William D. Boss. The bell was cast in Gottenburgh, and arrived here in 1787, and is on the letter A. It weighs 1211 lbs., bearing the imprint "Captain Benjamin Pearce, second Congregational Church of the city of Newport, 1786."

6. TRINITY CHURCH measuring 46 by 97 feet, situated on Church, Spring and Frank streets. The first house, on the same site, was completed in 1702, and the present in 1726, then measuring 46 by 70 feet, and enlarged to its present dimensions in 1762. The tower was erected 1768, measuring 18 feet square, and 60 feet high above bell deck. The present minister is J. H. Black, and the sexton Gottleib Spingler. The bell weighs 1876 lbs., and is on letter A sharp.

7. THE MORAVIAN, OR UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH, organized in 1758. Their house, which is on Church street, was built in 1767–8, and measures 31 by 49 feet, and seats 241. It is now occupied as a public school-room. Committee on the premises, James A. Green.

8. THE JEWISH SYNAGOGUE, on Touro street, was built in 1762, and measures 45 by 62 feet, and seats on the floor 79; in the galleries there are no seats. Custodor, W. C. Thurston.

9. The Fourth Baptist Church, which had a meeting-house on Warner street, built by Daniel White, in 1725, which was the next estate but one east of Ex-Alderman William Stevens, but which was subsequently sold. It was reorganized June 23, 1783. Afterwards they worshiped in Union Church, on Division street; then in the Sabbatarian, and finally a division erected a house on South Thames street, recently occupied by Episcopalians. Rev. Mr. Huddy, pastor. Its sexton is Daniel Jackson.

10. The Methodist Episcopal Church was established in 1805, and their house on Marlborough street was erected in 1806–7. L. D. Davis is the minister, and D. Wetherell, sexton. The bell weighs 1,044 pounds, and is on letter G sharp.

11. The Colored Union Church was established in 1824. In 1835 they purchased their house, situated on Division street, which measures 24 by 44 feet, and seats 178. A Presbyterian (Colored) Church has been formed in 1858. Richard Vaughan is the minister, and Thomas Church sexton.

12. St. Joseph's Church, Catholic, was established 1828. The building, which is on Mount Vernon street, was erected in 1833–6.

13. Zion Church, Episcopal, was founded in 1833. Their house is on Touro street, south side of the Mall, and was built in 1834. W. S. Childs is the minister, and J. Irish, sexton.

14. The Unitarian Congregational Church was established October, 1835. In November they purchased the first Congregational house on Mill street, and remodeled it in 1836. Charles T. Brooks, settled June 14th, 1837, is minister, and J. Gladding, sexton. Their bell weighs 1,193 pounds, and is key A.

15. Central Baptist Church organized January 7th, 1847; purchased the Second Congregational House on Clarke street, and enlarged it in 1847. It was enlarged the second time in 1852–3. The bell weighs 1,223 pounds, and is on the letter A sharp. The minister is H. E. Robbins, and the sexton A. C. Babcock.

16. The Friends Society, Mann avenue. There was a division in the Society in 1845. Their house was built in 1847. Henry Gould, committee.

RAILROADS.

Newport and Fall River Railroad Company.

Directors.— Benjamin Finch, Alexander Holmes, Geo. A. Kettell, John R. Brewer, William C. Cozzens.

President.—Benjamin Finch.

Secretary.—David G. Cook.

Chief Engineer.—S. F. Johnson.

This road is now in process of building, and will be finished this fall (1863). It is proposed to be consolidated with the Old Colony and Fall River Railroad Company—as authorized by the Legislatures of Rhode Island and Massachusetts—under the title of the

and will then form a continuous line from Newport to Boston, connecting at Newport with the Boston, Newport and New York Steamboat Company's Line, consisting of the splendid boats Metropolis, Empire State, and Bay State, making the most comfortable and pleasant routes from Boston to New York, and particularly from New York to Boston, giving passengers a full night's rest, avoiding the disturbance of arousing passengers at midnight to land at Newport, as the boats will arrive quietly at the wharf in Newport and the cars will not leave for Boston until such hour as may be necessary to reach that city in time for morning trains bound eastward.

No arrangement of time for running cars on this line has been agreed upon, but regular morning and evening trains will be established in addition to the express trains.

STEAMBOATS.

BOSTON, NEWPORT AND NEW YORK STEAMBOAT COMPANY.—This route is by steamer from New York to Newport, R. I., 160 miles, and thence by railroad 71 miles (two hours and ten minutes), to Boston. On this route are the well-known steamers Metropolis, 2,300 tons burden, Captain William Brown; Empire State, 1,650 tons, Captain Benjamin Brayton; Bay State, 1,600 tons.

These boats are not surpassed, either in strength or safety, by any other boats ever constructed, and are elegantly and substantially fitted up with everything calculated to contribute to the ease, comfort and safety of travelers. One of them leaves New York every afternoon (Sundays excepted) at 5 o'clock P. M. (at 4 o'clock in the winter months), for Newport, and arrives at an early hour the following morning, whence, after a comfortable night's rest, the traveler may proceed direct to Boston by steamboat train.

Passengers from Boston to New York take the steamboat train, which leaves the Old Colony and Newport Railroad depot, Boston, every afternoon (Sundays excepted) for Newport, arriving at the latter place in time for an early supper on board one of the above boats, which starts for New York immediately on arrival of the train.

Providence passengers are forwarded to and from Newport by steamers running on the river.

NOTE.—This arrangement not yet completed, but expected to be in operation before Christmas.

NEWPORT AND PROVIDENCE.—Summer Arrangement.—The steamer City of Newport, Captain N. B. Allen, from June 15th to September 15th, will leave Newport at 7 A. M. and 1.30 P. M.; leave Providence at 9½ A. M. and 6 P. M., connecting with railroads for Boston, Worcester, Albany, New York, Stonington, New London, Saratoga Springs, &c.

Fall Arrangement.—The steamer City of Newport, from September 15th to June 15th, will leave Newport at 8 A. M.; leave Providence at 2 P. M.

The steamer Montpelier, Captain Williams, leaves Newport 11 A. M. and 5 P. M., leaves Providence 8 A. M. and 2 P. M.

NEWPORT, GREENWICH AND NEW YORK.—The steamer Water Lilly, Captain Townsend, leaves Newport 11 A. M., connects at Greenwich for the 12.50 P. M. New York train.

NEWSPAPERS.

THE NEWPORT MERCURY is the oldest but one of many newspapers published in the United States, and dates from June 12, 1758, at which time the office was opened by James Franklin, eldest brother of Dr. Benjamin Franklin. The press on which the two brothers worked in Boston still remaining in the office. The Mercury was published regularly up to the time of the landing of the British on the island, when the press and types were buried. The fact that the property was so secreted was made known to the British commander, who caused them be set up again, and during the stay of the British, they regularly issued the Rhode Island Gazette. After the war, the Mercury was again issued, and was published by one family for a period of seventy years, its dimensions gradually increasing, from a few inches square, to one of the large and respectable sheets of the day. The Mercury is independent on all questions of the day, and is, what it professes to be, a high-toned conservative paper, adopted to the wants of a large class of readers. It is published and printed every Saturday, by Pratt & Messer, Thames street, corner of Market square. Terms, $2.00 per annum.

NEWPORT ADVERTISER is printed and published weekly, by James Atkinson, Pelham street. Terms, $2.00 per annum, half yearly in advance.

THE NEWPORT DAILY NEWS AND WEEKLY JOURNAL.—The Daily News was the first daily paper published in Newport, and has outlived many competitors, which have, from time to time, been organized, being at the present time the only daily paper in the State, out of the city of Providence. It was first published on the 4th of May, 1846. George T. Hammond, Esq., purchased the entire establishment, on the 20th of April, 1857, and is now the editor, publisher, and proprietor. Mr. Hammond, at the same time, purchased and united the interest of several weekly papers in his present publication.
